

CHAIRMANSHIP IS BIG PROBLEM

Peace Between Moosers and Republicans Hinges Largely on Selection.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—Charles E. Hughes, weary from a week of strenuous political activity in New York, returned to his home here tonight for the week end. He retired immediately before hearing of George W. Perkins' announcement regarding peace negotiations between the republicans and progressives.

The nominee's apparent desire to bring the progressives and republicans into accord is understood to have been the theme of discussion in several conferences in New York between Mr. Hughes and some of the progressive leaders, notably Everett Colby of New Jersey; Oscar S. Straus and S. S. McClure, who called at the Hughes headquarters there. To other callers the nominee has voiced the sentiment that the interests of both progressives and republicans demanded that differences should be subordinated and harmony restored before the actual work of the campaign is begun.

The desirability of bringing the progressives under the republican standard again was discussed also, it is understood, in the long conference Tuesday night between Mr. Hughes and W. Murray Crane, chairman of the republican national sub-committee on organization, who, in turn, is said to have conferred with other party leaders on the subject since then. None of the nominee's callers would authorize the statement that such a movement was on foot, but indications have been lacking that peace overtures were imminent. Mr. Hughes adhered steadfastly to his announced policy to refrain from discussing political affairs publicly until he is formally notified of his nomination, and his advisers considered it doubtful last night if he would depart from this policy to comment on Mr. Perkins' announcement.

Indications are that the attitude of the progressives may have much bearing on the nominee's selection of a national chairman and campaign manager. It became known tonight that some progressive leaders have a candidate for the chairmanship in William Loebe, Jr., who was secretary to President Roosevelt. During his two days' stay in Washington, Mr. Hughes expects to devote much time to consideration of eligibles for the place. His advisers, however, are almost unanimously of the belief that he will be virtually his own campaign manager, and that the selection of a man to fill the position will be nominal. George R. Sheldon, who has been treasurer of the national committee for three terms, is expected by those close to Mr. Hughes, to succeed himself.

The personnel of the next executive committee is another matter to which the nominee will give careful consideration during his stay here. Almost equally important will be consideration of a summer residence. In selecting his summer home he will consult the wishes of Mrs. Hughes, and will endeavor to find a place in the mountains of New York, not too remote from New York city. The present intention of the nominee is to take frequent trips from his summer home to New York city before the fall campaign.

SEN. BURLEIGH DIES AT HOME IN MAINE

AUGUSTA, Me., June 17.—United States Sen. Edwin C. Burleigh died Friday night at his residence here. Sen. Burleigh's death was due to acute indigestion. He was ill only a few hours. His wife died a month ago in Washington.

Mr. Burleigh was governor of this state four years, from 1889 to 1893. In 1897 he was elected to congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Congressman Seth L. Milliken, and secured until the democratic landslide of 1910, when he was defeated. He was elected to the senate from Maine for a six year term by the legislature in 1913.

HENRY WITHDRAWS

OMAHA, June 17.—Dr. W. O. Henry, candidate of the progressive party in Nebraska for United States senator, announced his withdrawal from the race. In a statement he advised to support Charles E. Hughes in "the interest of the country."

Other Charges Filed Against Men in Muncie

MUNCIE, Ind., June 17.—For absconding himself from the state during the trial of Gene Williams, former deputy prosecuting attorney who was convicted last week of having conspired with Mayor Rollin H. Bunch and police officials to solicit and accept bribes, Thomas V. Miller, a young attorney, was Friday sentenced to the state penitentiary for 60 days and fined $25 by Judge Fred Gause of Newcastle, trial judge in the Williams case. Summary contempt of court proceedings were brought against Miller.

Lloyd Cooley, young school teacher and attorney who was also wanted by the state as a witness against Williams, was arraigned on a charge of contempt. Judge Gause placed Cooley under $1,000 bond and ordered that he be a witness before the grand jury. It is probable that Mayor Bunch himself will face a contempt charge, or an indictment may be returned against him, charging him with spiriting away witnesses. Cooley told the court that Bunch drove him to Marion, Ind., in his (Bunch's) automobile. Cooley broke down completely before Judge Gause and cried and sobbed like a child.

"I was afraid—afraid—to come back for fear of my life," Cooley sobbed.

A few minutes before Cooley made his sensational charge, Sheriff Albert O'Hara had arrested Mayor Bunch on three charges, two for assault and battery with intent to commit murder, and one for unlawfully placing dynamite. Chief of Police William A. McVaine, who was arrested Thursday on a charge of assault and battery with intent to commit murder and unlawfully placing dynamite, was again arrested Friday morning on another charge of attempted murder.

The dynamiting of the home of Atty. Wilbur Ryman, who is now special prosecutor before the grand jury, is the basis for two joint indictments against the mayor, chief of police and Gene Williams, who has not yet been arrested.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., June 17.—Citizens of Tippecanoe county at a mass meeting held Friday evening, decided to hold a big centennial celebration in this city early in October. Judge H. H. Vinton was elected president of the citizens' association, which will have charge of the observance.

Every Woman Should Use Every Week Shampoo

To Preserve Her Hair

If women would use an Anti-Septic Oil Shampoo instead of the soaps and shampoos now so commonly used, they would improve rather than injure the delicate hair plants. The hair plant is an oil plant and to wash it with soaps or shampoos containing free alkali works great injury. It not only cuts the natural oil of the hair but it destroys the fatty roots of the hair plant causing the hair to come out.

EVERY WEEK ANTI-SEPTIC OIL SHAMPOO cleanses and purifies the scalp, disposes and removes dandruff, opens the clogged hair-cells and leaves the scalp soft and healthy.

It leaves the hair soft, lustrous, fluffy and easy to handle. Excellent for men and children also.

THEATERS

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

The offerings at the Auditorium today are "The Double Cross," a two-reel Essanay drama; "Mutt and Jeff," a comedy, introducing those two funny fellows known to every child in the land, and these pictures will be shown every Saturday indefinitely. "One Chance in a Hundred," a railroad picture featuring Helen Rose Gibson; "A Mix Up in Black," a single-reel comedy; the Selig-Tribune weekly, and Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Drew in a Metro comedy. On Sunday's bill are "The Condemnation," a two-reel Essanay; "The Water Cure," a Vim comedy; "The Sheriff's Duty," a Selig western drama, featuring that popular player Tom Mix; "The Mistake," a Biograph re-issue directed by David W. Griffith, and "A Boarding House Ham," a Selig wild animal comedy filled with laughs from start to finish. Monday Charlie Chaplin returns in the second of his new pictures produced by the Mutual company, whom it is claimed pays this month provoker the magnificent salary of $470,000 per year. He will be seen this time in a two-reel comedy, entitled "The Fireman." The fourth chapter of the sensational serial story "The Secret of the Submarine," will also be shown, as well as "The House With the Closed Shutters," another Biograph re-issue under the direction of Griffith; "Out Agin, In Agin," a single-reel comedy.

AT THE LASALLE.

The enchanting screen favorite, Hazel Dawn, will be seen at the LaSalle today in a dramatic romance of the mountains entitled "The Feud Girl." In the role of the care-free mountain girl, who is the daughter of the leader of one of the conflicting feuds, Miss Dawn is most fittingly cast, and it is said to be one of the most sympathetic and appealing character types that she has ever played before the camera. The picturesque mountain regions of northern Georgia were taken advantage of by the camera men and the rugged country in which the pictures were taken make a sterling background for the elemental story of the feudal people. Supporting Miss Dawn for this drama are Irving Cummings, Arthur Morrison, Gertrude Norman and other players of note. The Burton Holmes travel pictures will complete today's program.

A Lasky picture of the very highest class will be seen at the LaSalle on Sunday entitled "Where the Trail Divides." As the title suggests, this is a mountain story of unusual merit, being shown at this theater some time ago and brought back on account of its exceptional worth. Heading an excellent list of characters in the portrayal of this photograph are Robert Edison and William S. Hart, who are famous for their western characterizations.

AT THE ORPHEUM.

"Help Wanted," the sensational successful drama which had long runs at several of the large legitimate houses of New York and Chicago, will be the attraction at the Orpheum today. Presented by the Jack Bessey company of stock players. The drama tells of the adventures of an innocent stenographer in a big city. The heroine is the office assistant for a prosperous importer and the story of her experiences to "make good" forms a striking, unusual and exceedingly interesting drama. It has thrills of the kind that all audiences like and everything goes with a rush from the time the curtain goes up until it drops at the conclusion of the last act.

AT THE COLONIAL.

"The Courtesan, or the Mother's Sacrifice" will be shown at the Colonial today. The story deals with a woman whom circumstances have forced into the wrong path. She places her son in good hands with the understanding that he will never know of his mother and continues a life of wrong-doing. Later when the son has grown up to manhood he is elected district attorney, and an attempt is made to dispose of him. He is lured to his mother's house while a raid is on. The story has a most pleasing ending.

An acre of land in Nova Scotia is said to have produced 507 bushels of potatoes.
